

Sample Interview Questions:

- 23 years ago you left a successful career to become a MomPreneur. How did you have the courage to quit your "day job?"
- What made you decide to write a book with all you already have going on?
- What was your biggest mistake, and what did you learn from it?
- The title of one of your chapters is "Hard Work Will Not Make You Successful". Can you explain what this means, and what your success formula is?
- How do you stay focused with all the "work from home" distractions?
- Was your family supportive and, if not, how did you deal with that?
- According to a recently released report referenced in a Wall Street Journal article (Sept 14, 2013), the top barriers for women entrepreneurs are fear of failure and a lack of confidence. What advice does your book offer to help women overcome these barriers?
- In the beginning of your book, you define the term Visionista. What exactly is a Visionista and why should women entrepreneurs be more Visionista-like?

